Merrie
Christmas-
to you.

Dedicated to Some one who knows all about
The Merrie Christmas Time.

Weather cold for ... and 15th of ...

The time draws nigh
The birth of Christ
The moon's hid: the night is still.
The Christmas bells
from hill to hill,
Answer each other in the mist.
Tennyson--

"Over the hills of Palestine.

The silver stars began to shine,
Night drew her shadows
Softly round,

The slumbering earth, without a sound."

Prescott-

Where the tangled barberry bushes

Wear their tufts of crimson berries

Where the long low line of hills

Meets the shining of the sky

There a messenger from heaven sings
Joyfully the frosty air rings
Peace on earth, good-will to men.
For Christ is born in Bethlehem.

I wonder if Sorita will pass this way
When he comes to our house today
