FOREWORD

We take pleasure in presenting to our friends this excellent collection of tested recipes, for we feel that the usefulness of the book will justify its appearance in the company of house-keepers' aids.

The compilers bespeak a liberal patronage for the advertisers whose ready co-operation has made this book possible, and for the recipes they ask the confident use which the names of the contributors justify.

WHAT DOES COOKING MEAN?

“It means the knowledge of Medea and of Circe, of Calypso and of Helen, of Rebecca and of the Queen of Sheba.

“It means the knowledge of all fruits, and herbs and balms and spices, and of all that is healing and sweet in fields and groves, and savory in meats.

“It means carefulness and inventiveness, and watchfulness and willingness and readiness of appliance.

“It means the economy of your great grandmother and the science of modern chemists.

“It means much tasting and no wasting.

“It means English thoroughness, French arts and Arabian hospitality. It means, in fine, that you are to be perfectly and always ‘ladies’—loaf-givers—and as you are to see imperatively that everybody has something pretty to put on, so also must you see that your cooking is not only done well, but garnished prettily.”

SOUPS

“The turnpike road to people’s hearts, I find,
Lies through their mouths or I mistake mankind.”

CREAM OF CELERY.

Cook together for one hour, 1 bunch of celery, cut fine, 1 large onion chopped, 1 teaspoonful of salt, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful of pepper, and 1 pint of water. Strain, return to fire, add 1 pint of milk, 1 large spoon of butter and thicken with 1 tablespoonful of flour, moistened with a little milk.

Mrs. Mart Armstrong.

CREAM CORN.

One can of corn, 1 quart of milk, 1 cup of cream, 2 tablespoons of butter, 1 tablespoon of flour. Boil corn and part of milk together, then strain. Work butter and flour together, add gradually the corn and rest of milk and cream, and when ready to serve, sprinkle with chopped English walnuts and parsley. Season with salt and pepper to taste.

Mrs. C. L. Carlson.

CREAM TOMATO.

Take one pint of fresh or canned tomatoes, slice fine a small onion, put on the stove for ten or fifteen minutes, then add a pinch of soda, dissolved in a little hot water. Put in another quart of sweet milk and as soon as it is boiling hot, remove, add tomatoes, a small piece of butter, salt and pepper to taste. Serve at once.

Mrs. Carl Spring.

VEGETABLE.

Twenty-five cent soup bone, boiled until the meat separates from the bone. Remove the meat, and skim off the fat. Add to this stock, 1 cup of chopped potatoes, 1 cup of chopped cabbage, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of chopped onions, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of carrots and 2 cups of chopped tomatoes. Boil until vegetables are very tender. Strain or not, as desired. Mrs. Chas. Tracy.

CREAM OF TOMATO.

One quart of tomatoes, 1 quart of rich milk, 2 tablespoonfuls of flour, 2 tablespoonfuls of butter, 1 small onion cut fine, $\frac{1}{2}$ level teaspoon of soda. Cook tomatoes and onions together ten minutes. Place milk in double boiler, and bring to a boiling point. Add salt and pepper and flour made into a smooth paste with a little water, and cook until slightly thickened.

When ready to serve, add soda to tomatoes and pour slowly through a sieve into the milk, stirring constantly, to avoid curdling. Always blend tomatoes with the milk, and do not boil after blending.

Mrs. Chas. Tracy.

VEGETABLE.

Four pounds of soup bone, the shanks preferred. Cook meat and onions together, then about an hour and a half before serving, grind about $\frac{1}{2}$ of the meat, and add 1 small head of cabbage, chopped fine, 1 dozen of diced potatoes, 1 dozen carrots, 1 can of tomatoes, season to taste.

Mrs. K. R. Parker.

FRUIT.

Two quarts of water with a lemon sliced. Let boil about one hour, then add 5 tablespoonfuls of sago, and 1 cup of raisins, and a few currants, 1 cup of nice prunes, sweeten to taste.

Mrs. K. R. Parker.

NOODLE.

Two pounds of soup meat in 1 gallon of cold water, with 1 tablespoon of salt. Boil two or three hours, slowly, adding hot water to replenish when necessary. One hour before taking from fire, add 1 small onion, 1 medium potato, 1 piece of celery, and a small piece of parsley, all chopped fine together, and fifteen minutes before serving, add noodles made as follows: 1 egg, beat well and season with a pinch of salt. Add as much flour as will make a stiff dough, roll out thin, then roll up and cut in fine strips. Leave dry an hour or so before using.

Mrs. J. Y. Hooper.

CHICKEN.

Take 1 gallon of stock, obtained from boiling a chicken slowly several hours, add small amount of fine chopped celery or celery salt, also salt and pepper to taste. Then add 1 cup of barley or rice previously soaked over night, and boil all together slowly for two hours. Noodles may be added if desired.

Mrs. J. Y. Hooper.

CHICKEN BOUILLON.

One large soup bone, 2 pounds, 1 chicken, 1 small slice of ham, 1 soup bunch, 3 cloves, pepper and salt, 1 gallon of cold water, whites and the shells of two eggs. Boil chicken, beef and ham slowly for five hours, adding soup bunch and cloves the last hour. Strain soup through a flannel bag and let remain over night, then remove all the fat and take out jelly, avoiding settlings. Mix it with the beaten whites of eggs and shells, boil quickly a couple of minutes, skim carefully and strain through a jelly bag. When heating to serve, add 2 teaspoons of caramel for coloring.

Caramel: Boil $\frac{1}{2}$ pound of sugar and tablespoon of water in porcelain kettle until a bright brown, add 1 teacup of water, boil a few minutes, cool and strain.

Anonymous.

ASPARAGUS.

Wash 2 bunches of asparagus, cut in small pieces. Put to cook in a quart of boiling water, and simmer gently till perfectly tender, when there should remain 1 quart of liquid. Rub through colander, except hard portion. To a pint of mixture, add salt, 1 cup of cream with 1 pint of milk. Boil up a few minutes and serve.

CREAM ASPARAGUS.

Two pounds of veal knuckles, and 2 pounds of asparagus, one-third cup of butter, and a third of a cup of flour, yolks of 2 eggs, fourth of a cup of cream. Cook the knuckles slowly for two hours, with a tablespoonful of salt, in 3 quarts of water, removing scum as it rises. Strain. Have the asparagus boiled, melt butter and when bubbling, add the flour. When well mixed, add gradually the soup, stirring constantly. If carefully done, other straining should not be necessary. Put asparagus and the water in which they are boiled into the soup, heat until boiling point. Just before serving, pour gradually soup over well beaten eggs and cream, stirring constantly.

Mrs. Fred Brodegaard.

BROWN SOUP.

Two pounds of veal knuckles or shanks, 2 pounds of round steak, 5 carrots, 1 celery stalk, 1 onion, salt and pepper. Cook knuckles slowly for one hour in 3 quarts of water, removing scum as it rises. Cook vegetables one-half hour in 1 quart of water. Brown meat in very hot frying pan. Add gradually some of the soup. When dark brown, add this to remaining soup and boil slowly for one hour, then strain and add vegetable soup. Season with salt and pepper. Serve with the carrots cut in small pieces.

Mrs. Fred Brodegaard.

BARLEY SOUP.

Take 1 gallon soup stock, or enough beef extract, dissolved in boiling water to make that amount. Steam $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of barley until thoroughly soft, then put through a fine sieve so it is thoroughly disintegrated. Add barley then to boiling stock, and cook up for a few minutes. Add salt and pepper to suit taste.

Fish, Oysters, Eggs, Etc.

“But still I must cry, when the Pike is at home,
mind the cookery.”—Barker.

SALMON BOX.

Line a buttered bread pan or a mold with warm steamed rice, putting a can of salmon or cold boiled salmon steak in the center. After seasoning salmon, cover with the rice, and steam one hour. Before serving, pour over it the following sauce: 1 cup of butter, 3 level tablespoons of flour, 1½ cups of hot water, salt and pepper. Melt butter, stir in flour, and slowly add the well beaten yolks of two eggs, and juice of ½ a lemon.

Mrs. Chas. Haffke.

LOBSTER NEWBURG.

Put in blazer, 1 tablespoon each of butter and flour, ½ tablespoonful of salt, and a dash of paprika. When butter melts, and mixes with the other ingredients, gradually add a cup full of rich milk, stirring until smooth. Add the lobster well picked to pieces, cover, slip hot water pan underneath and cook for five minutes. Add more seasoning if necessary. If liked a tablespoonful of sherry may be added. This is for four servings. Serve on hot buttered toast.

Mrs. E. F. Brailey, Omaha, Neb.

SALMON BALLS.

Chop cold boiled potatoes and canned salmon in equal quantities, season with salt and pepper, shape in flattened cakes, roll in cornmeal and fry with small quantity of grease.

At the end of this time remove the upper pan and bake the ham two hours.

When ready to serve, remove carefully the paste, then the skin. Trim the bone neatly, brush the skin side with beaten egg, dust it thickly with bread crumbs and chopped parsley, and put it in a quick oven to brown. Skim the fat from the cider, boil it down until you have one pint, which turn into a sauce bowl. When the ham is browned take from oven, garnish bone with a quill of paper and serve in bed of cress.

Steam macaroni till tender, blanch with cold water, chop onions fine and fry in butter until yellow, mix together, and put in a covered dish and bake four hours, in a moderate oven.

Mrs. S. L. Wright.

MACARONI AND CHEESE.

CREAMED MACARONI.

Boil 24 sticks of short macaroni in salt water for twenty minutes. Drain and pour on cold water to blanch. Make a dressing as follows: 2 tablespoonsful of butter melted, 2 table-spoonsful of flour, 1 teaspoonful of salt, 1½ cups of sweet milk (pour in slowly), and two-thirds of a cup of grated cheese. Cook till smooth. Alternate a layer of macaroni and a layer of cream, till dish is full. Cover with a layer of cracker crumbs and cook till brown. Mrs. G. W. Lutton.

SWISS CHARD.

This vegetable is a variety of beets, in which the leaf and midrib have been developed instead of the stock. It is cultivated like spinach, and the green, tender leaves are prepared exactly like this vegetable, covering and cooking for ten minutes, then mincing and adding small pieces of butter and salt to taste, or it can be creamed. The midribs of the full grown leaves are boiled until tender, then creamed like asparagus or celery. Mrs. Harriet McMurphy, Omaha, Neb.

MUSHROOMS.

Peel and carefully look over and wash the mushrooms, so as to wash away all gritty substance. Place in pan with liberal pieces of butter, and salt and pepper to taste. Cover and let simmer from a half to three-fourths of an hour. It improves them very much to add cream just before removing from fire. Can also be simmered with steak, in the same manner as onions. Mrs. John W. Hitch.

CHEESE SOUFFLE.

Two tablespoons melted butter. Add 4 tablespoons flour. Mix until smooth and add 1 cup milk or cream. Cook until thick, then add yolks of 3 eggs beaten, and 6 tablespoons of grated cheese, pepper and salt to taste. Beat the whites and stir in last. Bake from ten to fifteen minutes in buttered dish in a quick oven.

Mrs. Zachary T. Lindsey.

RICE AND CHEESE.

Fill a shallow baking dish with hot boiled rice, and cover with crumbs prepared as follows: 1 cup of bread crumbs, 1 cup of thinly sliced cheese, seasoned with salt and pepper and a little butter. Rub thoroughly together between the hands, spread over the rice thickly, and brown in the oven. A good substitute for meat.

Mrs. J. V. Starrett.

SPANISH RICE.

Fry slices of onion in bacon dripping or part butter. Pour in $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of rice after it has been well washed. Keep stirring all the while till brown. Then turn in 1 quart of tomatoes. Let cook until done. Season with salt and chili powder to taste. As the rice is apt to settle and scorch, it should be stirred frequently. A little water should be added, too, if it becomes dry.

Mrs. E. C. Fuller.

ENGLISH BOILED CABBAGE.

Take one head of fresh cabbage and cut in four, taking out the core. Place in salt water and let stand for half an hour. Have a large pan of boiling water ready and place the cabbage in it, having salted the water first. Let boil with lid off for half an hour or till tender. Take out and drain the water off through a colander, season with pepper and butter and chop fine. Serve hot.

Mrs. Arthur Atack.

STUFFED POTATOES.

Bake smooth potatoes in the oven till mealy. Take out, cut open inside, remove inside part without tearing the skins, season this with salt and pepper and plenty of butter, refill, close up and brown.

DUTCH CHEESE.

Set crock of sour milk without disturbing clabber. When whey has separated, remove and drain on cloth laid in a colander, being careful not to break the curd. When wanted to serve, chop curd with spoon and add sweet cream. Season with salt and pepper. Secret lies in not getting sour milk too hot.

Pour over the beans while hot, and stir thoroughly. Seal while hot.

Mrs. Harry Knudsen.

Mix with the following salad dressing and then sprinkle each individual serving with broken walnut meats. Beat the eggs and seasoning thoroughly, and lastly add the vinegar. Stir constantly while cooking.
